St. Michael Gives Don Alonzo's Backers a Big Scare.

"OLD BONES" SPOILS A COUP

in the select Stakes at Monmouth Park yesterday, and the big son of Long Taw was a 3 to 1 on anyorite, with Sir Walter second choice, edge of and 8 to 1 being quoted against the Gidson & Daly representative. There was a long delay at the post, in which St. Michael retied himself into a reeking perspiration. When the fing nnally fell Don Alonzo raced away like a shot and opened up a gap of two last furtong pole. At that point St. Michael gradually kept creeping up to the leader, and Taral, seeing his danger, went to work on the big coit in dead series. The Don wanted to give up awfully had, but Taral kept whip, spurs and knees diering into him so furiously that the favorite managed to stay just long enough to win by a neck. St. Michael is a coit that few people have paid much attention to, but he has improved with every one of his races, and that is a stout heart. He will fight every the strength of the journey and is not besten until the last jump. This is what the big Ehret colt is addy in need of As long as he can be away in front and have nothing near him, he will race firm and strong, but when anything comes up beside him all is changed, and he is quite anxious to throw up the sponge.

For the second time this year "Old Bones" Raceland has spoiled a big coup for Johnpy "Raceland has spoiled a big coup for Johnpy"

Raceland has spoiled a big coup for Johnny Campbell, and both times Pessara has been the medium of Mr. 'ampbell's plunge. During the Spring meeting at Morris Park Campbell had Pessara' in a race with Raceland and bed a barrel of money on his borse and was beaten a neck. Yesterday these two met in the Delaware Handicap, and Pessara's Owners again nooded the ring with Lucir money. After the others had raced in front to the last quarter Old Bones came up and soon had the leaders in trouble. The latter part of the journey was a very soft place for the old son of Hilled, and he galloped home a length and a half before Pessara.

The fifth race furnished a rattling finish between Julien and Picknicker. The race was at seven furlouge, and the former led into the last furlong. Here Predicker went up and challenged the leader, and little Miggeley was forced to go to work. Both horses ran hast and head till a low feet from the wire was representation of the leader and let Julien win almost on the post. After the race Clayton claimed a loui against Julien, but the Judges decided that one was as much to blame as the other.

ng Midgeley rode a shockingly bad race men in the closing event yesterday. A st of a mile from home Yemen seemed winning easily, but Lambley managed Nomad up. Midgeley was without with ur, and helped Yemen just about as as a wooden man could have done. The save Nomad was bid up $1,705 its selling price.

The price Pierre Lorillard gave Brown & togers for Lamplighter is said to have been 30.000. With Tammany out of the way Mr. orillard should have no trouble winning the Gideon & Daly made a big plunge on the annie F. colt. He ran a good race and will do the next time out.
